A.1. Unseen passage. Read the paragraph given below, and answer the questions that follow. (10 marks)

To understand the life of a blind person just close your eyes for five minutes and try to do your daily chores. Your world will come to a standstill. In India, there are 22 blind males and 28 blind females in every 1,00,000 people. The number of the blind in India is estimated to be 13 million and this is a growing figure. These days we have special schools for blind and visually impaired. These facilities are available only to some in big cities. You can spend time with them. They learn by listening. Braille is a special language which blind or visually impaired can read with their fingers. They can learn music, swimming, candle making and many forms of crafts. These days, they can also learn to use special computers which use special software with speech synthesizers that allow blind children to hear the text. They can guide themselves through different programs, including surfing the net. These little things can make a big difference in a human life.

(10 marks)

I was born one day to the sunny sky.
The light was quite a surprise.
My mother fed me and kept me warm,
while I was small in size.
I had a brother, close to my age,
To play with every day.
A feeling of fun I learned.
Made me happy in every way.
The days went on and I got older;
Winter rise before my eyes.
I felt cold and numb at night,
Waiting for the sun to rise.
I was running through the field one day;
I fell and hurt my toe.
